

Accessibility Leader Program

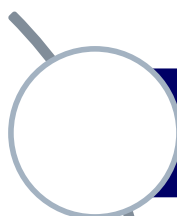

Becoming an

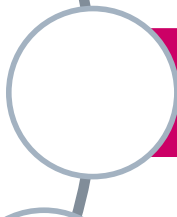

Accessibility Leader

at Hiroshima University!

AL Camp / Internship

AL Certification

Accessibility Curriculum

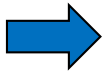

Diversity × Accessibility = Potential !

Accessibility Leader Program(ALP)

Any student can take this program, and it allows for progress and improvement

Declining birthrates and aging, globalization, advanced information technologies ...

Diversity × Accessibility = Potential

Accessibility Leader(AL)

People who really understand the diversity of environments and circumstances, and who can develop their potential by promoting accessibility in various contexts.

Training camp for Grade 1 ALs

Extracurricular training for problem solving:
“Learning the Latest Efforts and Initiatives in Society and Thinking about a Future of Kindness to Others”

AL Camp

4

3

AL Internship

Fields for those with certification
(Scholastic, regional, and corporate)

- AL Grade 2 examination :
[requirements] complete curriculum ①
- AL Grade 1 examination :
[requirements] complete curriculum ①②
- Certification by AL Promotion Consortium.

AL Certification

2

I

Accessibility Curriculum

① 2 online courses(moodle)

② 2 practice sessions & 2 lectures

AL Promotion Consortium (ALPC)

- ALP started at Hiroshima University in 2006.
- Industry-academia-government partnerships enabled the inauguration of ALPC in June 2009, and the promotion of ALP nationwide.

Members (March 2024)

Industry: Fujitsu, IF

Academia: Hiroshima Univ., Ibaraki Univ., Nagaoka Univ. of Technology, Tokyo Tech, Shinshu Univ., Univ. of Toyama, Mie Univ., Osaka Kyoiku Univ., Osaka Univ., Kwansei Gakuin Univ., Kyoto Bunkyo Univ., Kyoto Univ. of Foreign Studies, Kobe Univ., Tokushima Univ., Naruto Univ. of Education, Kagawa Univ., Takamatsu Univ., Tottori Univ., Okayama Univ., Hiroshima International Univ., Hiroshima Bunkyo Univ., Hiroshima Shudo Univ., Yamaguchi Univ., Kyushu Univ., Nagasaki Univ., Univ. of Miyazaki, Univ. of the Ryukyus

government: Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO), Higashi-Hiroshima City

Accessibility Curriculum

① 2 Online courses ② 2 practice sessions & 2 lectures

Curriculum I

1. Online Accessibility Course : Introductions (moodle)
2. Online Accessibility Course : Fundamentals (moodle)

Curriculum2

3. Introduction to accessibility for supporting the people with special needs
4. Practice of volunteer activities for supporting the students with special needs A, B
5. Seminar in modern accessibility

AL Certification

Those who have passed the exam will be recognized by the ALPC

AL Grade 2 examination (Internet Based Testing)

< requirements >

- Completion of curriculum I

AL Grade 1 examination (Internet Based Testing)

< requirements >

- Completion of curriculums I & 2

AL Camp

Training camp for 1st level accessibility leaders

- A training camp held under the theme of "Learning about cutting-edge technologies and initiatives and thinking about the future."
- ALC cooperating companies (from sessions 6 – 25) : Microsoft Japan, Fujitsu, IBM, IF, TOTO, SECOM, Tokyo Electric Power Company, DNP, Uchida Yoko, Tokyo International Air Terminal, JAL Sunlight, Oriental Land, Panasonic, YAMATO Transport, LITALICO, NHK Enterprises, Japan Institute of Design Promotion, The Accessible Design Foundation of Japan, Sanfrecce Hiroshima FC, Ossekai Culture etto, FRESTA, Hiroshima Electric Railway, JTEKT, IRIS CHITOSE

AL Internship

Internships for 1st level accessibility leaders

Internships for using the qualifications of ALs

- In-School Internships

- Interns are hired by the Accessibility Center, and work on promoting in-school accessibility, school support services, and improvement of the school environment.

- Local Internships

- Interns work on supporting learning for local children and junior high and high school students.

- Corporate Internships

- Interns receive job training in companies with an understanding of AL.

Accessibility Leader (AL) Specific Program

Accessibility Specialist

All ALP programs are curriculums designated as “AL Specific Program”. Students can obtain “Accessibility Specialist” qualification of Hiroshima University if they complete all ALP programs

(1. educational curriculums, 2. 1st level AL certifications, 3. AL camps or AL internships) and get credit for “accessibility studies,” a class to be held in the School of Integrated Arts and Sciences.

Contact us

Accessibility Center Hiroshima University

TEL&FAX: 082-424-6324

mail: achu@hiroshima-u.ac.jp

web page: <https://www.achu.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/>

ALPC web page: <https://al-pc.jp/web/>

アクセシビリティセンター

検索

